¿QUÉ SUCEDIO?

A photograph of a man in a yellow polo shirt and dark pants, holding a small, light-colored animal (possibly a cat or dog) in his arms. He has a white cloth draped over his left shoulder. He is standing in a courtyard or street in front of a building that appears to be under construction or in a state of disrepair. The building has a peach-colored facade with visible cracks and a large circular opening in the upper part of the wall. To the left, another man in a white t-shirt and light-colored pants stands with his hands on his hips, looking towards the camera. The ground is littered with debris, including wood planks and a blue bag. The overall tone of the image is somber and documentary.

“Y por lo menos si nos van a matar,
que nos maten luchando, buscando
como sobrevivir pues”

VICTÍMAS

CRÍMENES

A photograph of a man with glasses and a beard, wearing a dark suit and light blue shirt, speaking at a dark wooden podium. He is looking slightly to his right. In the background, several other people are visible, some looking towards the speaker. The lighting is warm, and the overall tone is formal.

JUSTICIA TRANSICIONAL

REFLEXIÓN

"Exigimos al Estado que no nos sigan matando, exigimos verdaderas garantías de no repetición. Exigimos que su presencia no sea solo militar, sino a través de una gran oferta social con garantías preventivas y reparadoras"
